The Court concludes that inesmuch as cross-complainant's case has progressed beyond the pleading stage, he is entitled to undertake and achieve ligitimate discovery. The first amendment does not preclude such. The order of this Court does not impinge upon the Church's ability to function as such or engage in its auditing practices with other members. It only permits the cross-complainant to find out his own words or expressions which are in possession of the cross-defendant, and permits additional discovery should the Court conclude through an in camera proceeding that other non-privileged relevant matter exists.

NATURE OF PROCEEDINGS	CONTRILED POOM	DACE 9		÷.,

VATURE OF PROCEEDINGS: CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1

Whatever may be the practice of the Church at this time, the Court heard substantial evidence presented at the trial conducted in April and May of 1984 that PC files were not maintained as confidential by the Church during the time when Armstrong was a Scientologist. P.C. files were characterized as "processing files" and the subject of Guardian Order 121669 issued by Mary Sue Hubbard. Consequently, the Court is satisfied that the Priest-Penitent privilege is not applicable and does not preclude discovery by cross-complainant.

TRIAL IS SET FOR SEPTEMBER 29, 1986 at 9 A.M. in Dept. 57. MANDATORY SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE is set SEPTEMBER 15 at 9 A.M. in Dept. 57; however, such shall be assigned at that time to some Department other than 57.

Within this framework, the parties are ordered to confer and attempt to agree upon cut off dates for other discovery, as well as schedule of events as per existing Superior Court Trial Setting Conference Policy. If the parties cannot reach an agreement as to all such matters within thirty days, the Court upon ex parte application will set a Trial Setting Conference hearing, and make appropriate orders, together with possible sanctions.

A copy of this minute order is mailed to Mrs. Dragojevic, Mr. Randolph and Mr. Peterson, by U. S. Mail.
